Mr

J. C. Fuller

1 Pitt St Boston Mass

P.S. I shall probably be in Boston sometime in March, and if a suitable place can be obtained deliver a series of lectures on the millennium. My faith in its near approach is more and more confirmed by the passing events, and historical and biblical research.

Do you know of any place I could obtain for this purpose, and if so on what condition? I shall probably wish to deliver seven or eight lectures.

If you can give me any advice on the above points, please write, and oblige

Yours, J. L.

I perceive yours is directed to Sandwich I reside in Barnstable.

At present however I am not prepared to say how much can be done.

Both our county papers are closed against the subject of abolition; and the friend of the slave have it in contemplation if they cannot be opened, to start another paper through which we can be heard. If such a paper should be started we shall need all the help we can get throughout the county to sustain it.

We are altogether behind the other counties in the state, here, and shall need all our ^{own} energies, and I fear something more, to rise.

Something has been done the past year toward getting organized, and I think much more will be done the present year.

We have been waiting several months for an agent from the State Society to visit us and organize a County ~~Abolition~~, but cannot wait much longer. The season is near when our seafaring friends will be away and we must move soon or not at all. We are all well as usual. Mrs Litch joins in love to yourself and family and other friends.

Yours Respectfully,
Josiah Litch

Dear Brother Fuller.

I received yours of the 4th Inst, last evening; and in reply will say, if you can send the books to Sandwich by packet I will distribute them for 25cts per cap. I am twelve miles from there and it will cost me two or three dollars for traveling expence.

I believe the Sandwich packet runs now: it lays at Hobbs wharfe.

You will please send them immediately as I expect to take a journey before long.

Send 15 Vols of Commentary and four or five Vols of Supplement.

They are very anxious for the books

I can but rejoice that, at the length you have concluded to give up the Liberator; for with the good it may have done, it has done and is doing a vast deal of injury and I cannot concientiously patronize it. If you have such a paper as I can approve I shall most cheerfully give it what aid I can.
